

Fine Arts Camp

Ages 5-12 (K-6)
June 27th - August 5th

Come join us for a fun-filled art workshop camp at the Sundance School!

This 6-week camp is for budding Rembrandts or any camper who just loves art! Campers will work on age-appropriate projects with a finished product any camper would be proud to take home! The camp concludes with an art show featuring our young artists and their masterpieces. (Enrollment permitting)

Choose your week(s):

- Week 1 (June 27 - July 1): Mask Making - We'll explore the art of mask making while learning the history and importance of masks in many cultures. At least two masks will be created.
- Week 2 (July 5 - July 8): Celebrating America! - As we celebrate Independence Day, let's celebrate America through art! It will be a week of red, white and blue...sparkle and patriotism while creating masterpieces.
- Week 3 (July 11 - July 15): Printing - This is a fun-filled week engaging in the ancient art of printmaking. We will be implementing various printing techniques, including silk screen, stamping, monoprints and foam block printing.
- Week 4 (July 18 - July 22): Painting - Watercolor, tempera, and acrylic mediums will be introduced while we explore various artistic techniques.
- Week 5 (July 25 - July 29): Sculpture - Having fun with "art in the round!" It's a week of delving into sculpture with a chance to use the potter's wheel (no kiln), model magic, and wire as we create an abstract sculpture.
- Week 6 (August 1 - August 5): Art History Comes Alive! - Using various mediums and techniques, we will explore the creative process of various well known and influential artists. The extent of artists that we cover will be determined by the size and age of the class. At least two artists will be studied during the week.
